

Tigiwon Road

Teaser:

An easy ride of 8 miles (one way) with a few tough climbs. Tigiwon road takes riders on a peaceful ride to the edge of the Holy Cross Wilderness.

Description:

Tigiwon Road is the major access point to the trailhead for one of Colorado's most famous 14er's, Mount of the Holy Cross. Although the road may have a few washboards, it is a relatively easy ride. Depending on the start, riders will come to the Cross Creek Trailhead about 1.5 miles in to the ride. This section of the road is well shaded and is well shaded by trees. At around 5.0 miles the road passes the Tigiwon Community House with great views of the Gore Range in the distance. The last 2.0 miles of the can be more challenging as the grade gets steeper. The road finally ends at the Half Moon Trailhead. Return using the same route.

Directions:

Drive along Interstate 70 to Exit 171, Minturn. Head south on U.S. Highway 24 for about 5 miles to Tigiwon Road (FS 707) and turn right. Drive up the dirt road about 1 mile. Parking is available along the side of the road.
